

FISCAL NOTE

HB 3419 - SB 3351

February 11, 2004

SUMMARY OF BILL: Provides for the board of commissioners of a utility district, created by the merger of a district located in a charter county whose board has three commissioners and one or more districts also located in a charter county, to increase the board of commissioners to five members. Provides for the appointment of members to the merged district's board.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase Local Govt. Expenditures - Not Significant / Permissive

Estimate assumes to the extent affected districts choose to increase the number of board members, they will experience a not significant increase in expenditures for compensation of such members.
